NHADACA Clinician Scholarship Application

Due to a generous donation from the Bank of NH, scholarships are available for counselors seeking additional information about working with clients with substance use and co-occurring disorders. Scholarships may be applied to NHADACA events and trainings for as long as funds are available. Eligibility criteria: applicant must be working toward MLADC credential. Priority will be given to LICSW/LCMHC/LMFT applicants who meet the eligibility requirements and have not received a NHADACA scholarship within the past year. For consideration, please submit completed application to the contact information above.
