

THE NH TRAINING INSTITUTE ON ADDICTIVE DISORDERS

Presents:

EXPLORING THE CONNECTION BETWEEN PREVENTION AND RECOVERY

with James Wuelfing

1 HOUR WEBINAR TRAINING

PRESENTATION: This webinar will examine the continuum of care (prevention, intervention, treatment and recovery) focusing on prevention and recovery. After coming to an understanding of these two disciplines, participants will explore where there is commonality in populations, focus, outcomes and goals. The possibility of collaboration will be explored to potentially lay the groundwork of supporting both healthy individuals and healthy communities. Upon completion of this course participants will be able to:

- Identify the intersections between prevention and recovery approaches
- Define common terms used in prevention and recovery
- Describe a more holistic approach to the continuum of care
- Describe specific ways in which prevention and recovery practitioners can better support one another

PRESENTER: Jim Wuelfing is the owner of the New England Center, a company dedicated to quality training and technical assistance services. Aside from being a national leader in recovery coaching, facilitation of the development of recovery community organizations and in the field of prevention of problem gambling, Jim has many specialties including strategic planning, cultural competency, peer education, community organizing, spiritual growth, and curriculum development. In a consultant capacity, Jim has served as the Director of the Recovery Coach Academy for CCAR (Connecticut Community for Addiction Recovery) and as the Prevention and Recovery Consultant for the Massachusetts Council on Compulsive Gambling where he directed the prevention and recovery of problem gambling throughout the Commonwealth.
